

Request Form for I-20 Documents

The U.S. Department of Homeland Security (DHS) mandates that all schools verify students requesting visa documents show proof of readily accessible and adequate financial resources for themselves and any dependents they declare without resorting to unauthorized employment.

Do not submit this request until you have decided you will be attending the University of Washington.

For use by UW Seattle campus students ONLY.

UW Bothell students: please contact uwbintl@uw.edu. UW Tacoma students: please contact uwtiss@uw.edu.

Instructions - Please follow these instructions carefully

1. Review the UW Graduate School Financial Ability Requirement to determine educational costs and a list of acceptable resources and documentation for demonstrating adequate financial support:
<http://grad.uw.edu/admissions/understanding-the-application-process/international-applicant-faqs/financial-ability-requirement/>
I-20 documentation will contain the estimated University of Washington's average cost of graduate tuition rates.
2. Obtain financial documentation.
2a) If you have received confirmation of funding from a UW department (UW ASE appointment including Research Assistant/Teaching Assistant/Staff Assistant or tuition waiver only): contact the UW department and let them know you are requesting I-20 documents from GEMS (Graduate School). The UW department must notify GEMS about your funding by entering your financial support information into your application.
3. Create a shipment for the I-20 documents to be sent via Express Mail: <https://study.eshipglobal.com/>
For "sender" choose:

Sender

Things to consider...

- Do not submit this form until you have verified your transfer out date with your current institution.
- Only your current school has access to your SEVIS record. The UW cannot issue your UW I-20 (F-1 Status) until your student advisor at your current school completes the transfer out process in the SEVIS tracking system. In most cases, the transfer out date will be the last day of your final term at your current school.
- If you have already graduated, you must be within your 60-day grace period.
- A transfer out date earlier than your OPT expiration date will cancel your OPT employment authorization.
- The start date at UW must be within 5 months of your transfer out date in SEVIS or your program completion, whichever is earlier.
- Provide this information to your current DSO: University of Washington-Seattle Campus(SEA214F00265000)

Complete the following:

1. SEVIS ID Number: N

2. Name of current institution:

3. Designated School Official (DSO):

Name:

Title:

E-mail:

Phone:

4. Transfer out date (month/day/year):

5. Are you currently enrolled at the institution that issued your current I-20? Yes No

6. Last date of attendance (last date of the final term) at your current school (month/day/year):

7. Are you currently on OPT? Yes No

8. If you are currently on OPT, Dates of OPT authorization:
(month/day/year): From To

9. Do you intend to leave the U.S. BEFORE starting your graduate program at the UW? Travel plans may impact your I-20 application. Yes No

If Yes, list your travel dates here (month/day/year): From To

10. A valid U.S. address is required to issue a transfer I-20. Provide your most current U.S. address below:
Street Address

City/State/Zip

Section 5: Change of Other Nonimmigrant Status to F-1 Student I-20 Status

Family Name:

Given Name(s):

Your UW Student Number:

Instructions

1. Review the information on Change of Nonimmigrant Status:
<http://iss.washington.edu/procedures/change-status>
2. Submit an application to the U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) for a change of status. This option allows you to change your nonimmigrant status while remaining in the U.S. With this option you may gain F-1 student I-20 status, but you will not receive a new I-20. I-20s are only issued outside of the U.S. at a U.S. consulate or embassy.

What is your current visa status in the U.S.?

The documents for your change of I-20 status will be issued by the UW Graduate School, Seattle Campus. Should you have any questions, please contact us: uwgrad@uw.edu / 206.685.2630.
